

BSL 4 Leisure

Learn British Sign Language at your own pace

DEAFvibe, a successful well-known registered Charity, awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services in 2014 have set up a BSL 4 Leisure course where the emphasis is on learning in a friendly and supportive environment with no planned exam at the end. Students can move onto the Introduction to BSL and Level One BSL should they wish to hold a recognised qualification!

The aim of BSL for Leisure is to teach British Sign Language (BSL) which is recognised as the UK's 4th Official Language:

- To learn at your own pace;
- To provide opportunities for students to communicate with each other using BSL;
- To encourage students of the group to interact with members at Café DEAFvibe;
- To offer practice to those currently in training or those who wish have a refresher;
- Opportunity to join a friendly and social group.

Where: Sessions are held at Bradwell Lodge Community Centre, Bradwell Lane, Porthill, Newcastle under Lyme ST5 8PS (corner of Bradwell Lane and Porthill Bank, opposite Cargo Motor Factors) – just off the A500. Free Car Parking is available.
